

THE VISCOUNT DANGAN, GRADUATE CAB DRIVER, NOW AN ACTOR, IS HERE

Plays Well Part of a Lord on the Stage—Showed Father
He Could Work.

The Right Honorable the Viscount Dangan, eldest son of Lord Cowley of the County Meath, Ireland, was a passenger on the White Star liner Mauretania, which arrived today. His lordship is an actor, and has come to this country to play with "The Girl on the Film" company. The company came with him and includes a number of pretty English girls, whose presence made even the stormy voyage of the Mauretania worth while.

Viscount Dangan held different opinions from those of his honorable father. His worthy sire said that he couldn't go out on the street and make his own way. His son told him that he would show him. He went out and became a house painter. He held his job until he overhauled a pot of paint from a scaffold into the upturned face of his boss. Then he drove a cab in Belfast. He did well until he tried to convert his nag into a hurdler. He escaped to London while they were still gathering up the wreck of the cab.

In London he became the engineer of a poster's pushcart. And then the stage beckoned to him. They gave him the part of a duke and called it Lord Nowny. He says he does very well with the part, and that the pretty girls give the character a wonderful bit of realism. On the stage he is Arthur Wellesley, having taken his family name.

His lordship is six feet tall. His figure is of the harpist type. He wore white spats and astrakhan on his coat collar. The spats, of course, were on his shoes. He is smooth shaven, and the girls say he is lots of fun.

JAIL FOR MRS. VAN CLAUSSEN

Federal Court Declines to Grant Her Writ of Habeas Corpus.

Judge George C. Holt, in the Federal Court, today dismissed the writ of habeas corpus sued out by Mrs. Ida Van Claussen, who was committed to the Tombs by Judge James T. Malone of the Court of General Sessions on Oct. 30, in default of $5,000 bail to answer an indictment charging blackmail and threatening to shoot and kill Charles Wrenn, a lawyer, unless he would institute legal proceedings and pay her money.

WILSON'S COULD EASE, BUT HE STAYS IN BED

Doctor Will Not Allow President to Take Any Chances—May Not Be Out Before Monday.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 12.—President Wilson's cold was improved today, but he was ordered by his physician to remain in bed. The President wants to attend the Goddard Club dinner here tomorrow night to fulfill a promise of long standing, but there was doubt that his physician would permit him to go outdoors before Monday at the earliest.

Dr. Grayson is determined to have the President absolutely free from the cold before raising exposure again in the cold air.

SHE SEEKS RAG DE LUXE.

Maud Tiffany Over From Old
London for Crazy Quilt Music.

Maud Tiffany, who does ragtime de luxe, is back again from dear old London. She's back only for a short stay, but to get new themes, new songs and new rag acts.

She will invade Tin Pan Alley, properly chaperoned, to meet the composers of crazy quilt music, will follow the squirrels in Central Park and look over the psychological ward in Bellevue in a still hunt for the lift of sensation. She may ask Harry Thaw to write a few songs while waiting for the appeal. For London is crazy over the rag and must have it. Miss Tiffany isn't crazy over it, she says, but must get what London wants.

Resigns as Chairman of 'Change.

Benjamin G. Talbot, who for ten years has been chairman of the Stock Exchange, has tendered his resignation to the governing committee. It will be acted upon on Dec. 24.

Mr. Talbot, who is seventy-two years of age, has been ill for several months. He has been a member of the Exchange since 1874. If the resignation is accepted the office will be abolished.

EAGER FOR A POINTER.

(From the New York Herald.)
"Look here," said the sophisticated father, "how do you expect to do any studying if you're going to be out tearing around every night until 11 or 12 o'clock?"

A SURE THING.

(From the Cincinnati Enquirer.)
There are not many sure things in this world, but if you'll bet that a man doesn't know what he is talking about until he has won his money nine times out of ten.

SENTENCED TO ISLAND, PICKPOCKETS ARE FREE; SUBSTITUTES IN JAIL

Police Want to Know Why Ike
Farber and Solomon Sanders Are at Liberty.

District Attorney Whitman will be asked to determine when the notorious characters of New York have taken to going to jail for one another. According to information in the hands of Deputy Police Commissioner Newburger, Ike (Pussy) Farber, who was sentenced to Blackwell's Island, is abroad in the city and another is wearing the prison due in his stead. Mr. Whitman is to be asked to request a court order for the production in court of the pseudo Farber, to learn by whose connivance the substitution took place.

On November 21 Farber and Solomon Sanders, both widely known pickpockets, were arrested by detectives and eight days later were tried before Magistrate Marsh in the Jefferson Market Court. December 1 they were sentenced, Farber to four months and Sanders to two. Yesterday Deputy Commissioner Newburger discovered evidence to show that Farber was not on the island, yet the records showed that he was. Accordingly, the commissioner's secretary, Abraham E. Schoenfeldt, went to the island with a detective, who also knew Sanders well. Ten prisoners, including the one wearing as Sanders, were lined up. The real Sanders was not among them, and affidavits have been made to this effect.

TWO MEN KILLED BY TRAIN.

Took Short Cut Over Tracks With Fatal Result.

Two men seeking a short cut to their place of employment were killed on the Central Railroad of New Jersey at the East Thirty-third street station in Bayonne today. They were Louis Lawson of No. 72 Woodlawn avenue, Brooklyn, and Jacob Remsen of Twenty-eighth street, Bayonne.

Lawson was instantly killed; Remsen had both legs cut off and died in the Bayonne Hospital.

May Mandamus Harbinger.

William E. Burke, removed from the Third Panel of Jurors by Sheriff Harbinger, obtained permission from Justice Ford yesterday to apply for a writ of mandamus directing his reinstatement. He withdrew his application for an injunction restraining the Sheriff from displacing him.

MADAME ATE THE BIRD; HIS TAIL IS IN HER HAT

Tetrazzini, Landing From Europe,
Escapes With Headgear
Intact.

Mme. Luisa Tetrazzini, the singer, was a passenger on the Mauretania, which arrived here this morning after a stormy passage from London. The madame was accompanied by her two maids and both were kept busy on the voyage. The Italian nightingale was ill—oh, so sick!

Mme. Tetrazzini will open her season in Boston, singing with Titta Ruffo. Then she will tour the States, winding up in her dear old San Francisco. The singer was held up by a customs officer, attracted by the gay plumage in her hat. They were going to pluck out the feathers.

"Oh!" trilled the singer. "You mustn't touch the rooster tail. It is a rooster tail. I ate the rooster myself and kept the feather. Oh, the beautiful rooster!" The pretty plaint was too much for the kind-hearted inspector. The songbird escaped with her feathers unscathed.

Dreaming of Days When Appetite Was King

Bring Back Those Joyous Health-Laden
Days by Using a Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet After Meals.

One of the sad memories of a stomach sufferer are the days when he could eat the meals that others ate. He recalls this joy and the crash of many special diets, but to attempt the same thing now would be followed by distress, if not painful suffering.

Just a single Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet eaten like candy after a meal will assist in quickly and harmlessly digesting such a meal. In a brief time the faulty digestion will become normal and man may eat as he desires.

"And Now I Can Only Eat Soft, Mushy Diet."

Then the occasional use of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will bring to any one a more enjoyable and comfortable feeling after a large meal than one can possibly imagine.

The entire secret of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets lies in the fact that they are composed of those elements which the system needs most and would supply if it could. Don't delay. Go to your druggist and obtain a box this very day. Price, 50 cents.
